FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Internal Funding Opportunities

ISS Small Grant Program. The Institute for the Social Sciences' (ISS) small grant program supports social science research activities conducted by Cornell faculty. Application deadline is Thursday, September 11, 2008.

External Funding Opportunities

Fred H. Bixby Fellowship Program. The Population Council offers a fellowship program to expand training opportunities for population specialists and biomedical researchers. Fellows work on projects in one of three program areas: Reproductive Health; HIV/AIDS; and Poverty, Gender, and Youth. The deadline for applications is January 15, 2009. Inquiries will be answered beginning in August 2008.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Senior position at UT-Austin in Biodemography and Population Health. The Department of Sociology at the University of Texas at Austin invites applications for a tenured position (associate or full professor) starting in Fall 2009. The position will also include an affiliation with the Population Research Center. Screening will begin October 1, 2008 and continue until the position is filled. Interested candidates should submit a letter of introduction, Curriculum Vita, a writing sample, evidence of teaching excellence, and the names of three references to: Professor Robert Crosnoe, Demography Search Committee Chair, Department of Sociology, 1 University Station A1700, University of Texas, Austin, TX 78712.

Assistant or Associate Professor in Demography at Penn State. The Department of Sociology, University Park campus, invites applications for a tenured-track appointment in demography to begin August 2009. Specialization in health and aging, immigration and immigrant populations, international demography or the demography of inequality preferred. Applications received by October 10, 2008 will receive full consideration; however, all applications will be considered until the position is filled. Electronic submission strongly preferred. Send cover letter, CV, contact information for three references, and other supporting materials to SocRecruit@la.psu.edu. If unable to send electronically, applications can be mailed to Professor Gordon DeJong, Chair, Demography Search Committee, Department of Sociology, Box D-6, 211 Oswald Tower, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA 16802-6207.

Assistant Professor in Demography and Public Affairs at Princeton University. The Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University invites applications for a tenure track assistant professor position in demography and public affairs, beginning September, 2009. The appointment will be made jointly with another academic department (e.g., economics, ecology and evolutionary biology, politics, sociology). Substantive and methodological specialization in demography is open, but candidates should have a strong research agenda, a commitment to graduate and undergraduate teaching, and well articulated interests in public policy. Candidates should submit a letter of interest, a curriculum vita, a 2-3 page statement summarizing research accomplishments and future plans. Please send application materials electronically to Ms. Mary Lou Delaney (md@princeton.edu). Three letters of reference should be submitted separately either electronically or paper copy to her attention at: Office of Population Research, Wallace Hall, Princeton, NJ 08544. Screening will begin on October 30, 2008 and continue until the position is filled.
